

Employee Campaign Coordinator Guide

YOUR IMPORTANT ROLE AS AN ECC

As an Employee Campaign Coordinator (ECC), you are a United Way ambassador providing education, direction, and leadership. In your role you:

Engage.

Make giving personal and meaningful.

- Be the first to pledge. Then thank those that follow your example.
- Make it relevant. Ask people about how much they spend on coffee or other small items each week. Would they be willing to donate that money to help change lives through the United Way campaign?
- Invite questions. Be prepared for questions by being knowledgeable about United Way.

Motivate.

Create specific activities that inspire action.

- Make the challenge achievable. Asking people to give $2 per week sounds easier than $100 a year.
- Create a competition. Whether it's between departments or floors, locations or branches, create a contest to see who raises the most money, has the highest participation rate or signs up the most volunteers.
- Offer special activities for employees to engage in the campaign or have incentives for participation.
- Host a campaign rally to create a sense of excitement.

Ask.

"Not being asked" is one of the top reasons for not giving. Personal contact and a positive attitude are critical to your campaign team's success.

- Ask co-workers you know first. Then enlist them to spread the news.
- Start off with people that already give. Their participation will build momentum.
- Encourage payroll deduction. It's easier to give smaller amounts consistently.

Say Thank You.

Recognize everyone's contributions to the campaign, not just their donations.

- You can't thank them enough. Say "thank you" when you pick up pledge cards and send emails.
- Send a CEO communication. Have your CEO send a letter or email to all employees that participated in the campaign.
- Hold a thank you event. It can be part of a company gathering or an event all its own. Either is a great way to publicly honor participants, highlight results and showcase year-round engagement opportunities.
- Give certificates of appreciation. United Way staff can provide you with certificates.

TALKING ABOUT UNITED WAY

Has anyone ever asked you what does United Way do? The framework below will set the stage for discussing United Way. Once you share this framework you can explain your connection to United Way and why you give and volunteer and what it means to you.

Mission: To inspire and coordinate the generosity and commitment that sustains a united, thriving community.

Vision: United Way envisions a community united in its efforts to ensure that individuals and families achieve their full potential.

- Your contribution, when combined with gifts of others, makes a powerful impact and supports a vital, local network of health and human services that work together to help those in need.
- United Way's four key impact areas are: Basic Needs, Community Wellness, Promoting Independence, and Thriving Children and Youth.
- A single gift to United Way will address many challenges in our community and affect hundreds of thousands of lives.
- Supported programs include early care and education, child development, employment training, physical and mental health care, crisis intervention, shelter, emergency/disaster preparation, and response and recovery service.

SPECIAL EVENT IDEAS

Casual Day

Offer casual days to allow coworkers to dress casual on certain days. It can be a jeans day, silly hats or ties, crazy socks, or each person's favorite sports team. Or, have a Dress Up Day where employees can get all dressed up at home since this may be a nice change from going casual and they can show off their more formal attire.

Next-up Campaigns

Have employees post pictures to create awareness about the campaign and challenge their next colleague in a social/ email post and tag them to do something.

Food Ideas

Food is a great motivator to encourage giving AND as a sign of appreciation. Have a pot luck lunch, special breakfast (decrease contact by making to-go meals), or pizza party.

Meals can serve as a kickoff event, special event when you charge a small donation, or as a reward for giving. Challenge departments to compete and reward the winner with a pizza party. You can also have a food truck come to your business.

Email Bingo

Sell bingo cards leading up to the day you'll hold email bingo. Throughout the day, send numbers via email at specified times. The first three to get bingo win a prize. Other virtual games include a spelling bee or trivia contests.

Drawings

Hold a drawing linked to when employees turn in their pledge forms. Turn in your form one week early and receive three tickets. Turn it in before the deadline and receive one ticket. You can offer all sorts of prizes such as an extra day or half-day off, longer lunch hour, company promotional items, and choice parking spaces.

Pet Photos

If most of your workforce is remote, ask them to share photos of themselves with their pet pals while working. You can run a contest for the cutest picture or just have fun with it sharing photos of your best friends.

Timely Treats

Reward donors who turn in their pledge forms early. Place a balloon on their desk (weighted down with candy kisses or Life Savers) with a note of thanks. This will encourage employees to turn in their pledge form early while recognizing individuals who have already given.

Wall of Fame

Put pictures on wall recognizing employees who have been contributing to the United Way Campaign for the most consecutive years. You can create an electronic version of this to email out as well.

Guess How Many

Guess the number of jellybeans, M & Ms, Hershey Kisses or other treat in a jar. People can buy chances to guess. Winner with closest guess receives the jar of treats. This can easily be done virtually and emailed/posted.

Even more ideas...

- Talent shows, dance parties and entertainment events. Have employees purchase a ticket to receive the link. Bonus: If you do a talent show, have employees “vote” for the winning act with $1 for every vote.
- Online speaker series with United Way partner nonprofits or someone helped by United Way.
- Book exchange.
- Peer-to-peer fundraising challenge.
- Office Ice Cream Social – Company purchases ice cream and toppings for all employees.
- Card activity. Ask employees for a donation and creativity in writing encouragement cards for students.
- Midnight Breakfast – If your organization has a third shift, charge employees for a midnight breakfast served by executives and other day employees. Can also be done with a second shift crew.
- Round Up at the Cash Register Promotion – At the company cafeteria/marketplace/coffee bar ask employees to “round up” their total order with those funds going to the work of United Way.

INCENTIVES & PRIZES

It's important to use incentives as a tool to increase employee participation or the average gift. What works for one company may not work in yours, so do what's appropriate. Ideas include:

- Time off: an extra vacation day, half-day, sleep in late, call in "well" day, 2-hour lunch break, 'Sign off at 3 p.m.' coupons, etc.
- Prime parking spaces, perhaps with a sign saying "United Way Winner" or the CEO's spot for a week.
- Lunch with the CEO – off-site and they pay!
- Gift certificates to stores, restaurants, spas, salons.
- Jeans on Friday during the campaign.
- Promotional items from your own company.
- Gifts from the United Way Store – www.unitedwaystore.com.
- Drive-in movie gift cards.
- 'Coffee talk' with the CEO.
- Car wash gift card/Car detailing.
- Door Dash/Grub Hub/Uber Eats gift certificates.
- Membership to a book club.
- Tickets to a local museum, aquarium, etc.
- Amazon Prime Membership/gift card.

Early bird drawings can be used to motivate employees to turn in their pledge forms by a specified date:

Return your completed pledge form by [date] to be entered to win a prize.

Or use them to increase their gift:

Employees that increase their donation by [amount or percentage] will be entered to win a prize.

SAMPLE CAMPAIGN ANNOUNCEMENT

Feel free to use this language to announce the plans for your United Way Campaign in an email or flyer or in a letter from your CEO.

Good things don't just happen – they're created together.

Our community's strength is made up of millions of moments when we each decide to help. One action multiplies with another, and many small moments join together to accomplish more for this community than any one of us could achieve alone.

Our combined donations support United Way's network of health and human services programs in New London County in the impact areas of Basic Needs, Community Wellness, Promoting Independence, and Thriving Children and Youth. Your support means that we stand side-by-side with our neighbors, especially those who are most vulnerable.

These are United Way's bold impact goals:

- People have their basic needs met;
- Individuals improve their health and have access to healthcare;
- Individuals achieve financial stability;
- Children enter school ready to learn and are successful in primary school; and
- Youth gain the knowledge, skills, and credentials necessary to obtain family-sustaining employment.

I encourage you to learn more about United Way's work in exciting initiatives including New Capacities, the Eastern CT Health Collaborative, Student United Way, Your Voice Counts, the New London County Plan to End Homelessness, and of course, the Gemma E. Moran United Way/Labor Food Center.

Please join me in supporting United Way of Southeastern Connecticut. With all of us working together, we can create good things in our community, moment-by-moment. Thank you for all you do to Live United!
